Product description

The INVERTO by Cersanit freestanding bathtub impresses with its modern and austere look, while offering unique features. The ultra-thin, only 15 mm wall emphasizes its timeless elegance and sets the unique style of the bathroom. Centrally located water outlet and symmetrical backrests will allow you to enjoy a shared bath for two people. The INVERTO by Cersanit bathtub is made of acrylic that keeps you warm - a safe material that maintains a pleasant temperature, is resistant to damage and easy to keep perfectly clean. The set includes a complementary siphon with a chrome click-clack plug and a solid frame with height adjustment. Siphons with matt gold or black plugs, as well as free-standing taps are available separately.
